REPUBLICAN RALLY

DAVIS THEATRE

Monday, Oct. 25, 8 P. M.

ADDRESS BY

SENATOR W. E. BORAH

The Bulletin.

THE WEATHER.

Winds off Atlantic coast; North of Sandy Hook—fresh north-sat to north, Fair Saturday, Sandy Hook to Hatteras—moderate northwest to north, Fair Saturday. Condition.

A disturbance of marked intensity was centered over New Foundland Friday night. Pressure continued high over most sections east of the Mississippi river except New England.

The weather became cooler Friday in New England and the interior of New York.

Several stations in the southern lake region reported the highest tem-peratures ever recorded at this time of the year.

The weather will probably continue fair in the Atlantic states until Sunday night.

The temperature will be somewhat lower in portions of the north Atlantic and middle Atlantic states Saturday. Forecast.

For south New England: Fair Sat-urday and Sunday; somewhat cooler Saturday.

SENATOR BORAITS COMING

WILL ATTRACT BIG CROWD here should be and there will be There should be and there will be a great outpouring of people of all parties, faiths, creeds and nationalities to bear Senator William E. Borah on the League of Nations and the great and tremendously important issues of this election. Come and hear the man who rises in his place in the senate of the United States and says: "In these times, when ancient faiths are disappearing when ancient faiths are disappearing and governments are crumbling, when institutions are yielding to the tread of the hosts of disorder let us take our stand on the side of orderly liberty, on the side of constitutional government. Let us range ourselves along with Washington and Jefferson and Jackson and Libeoin and Rossersts. Let us be Washington and Jefferson and Jackson and Lincoln and Roosevelt. Let us be true to ourselves; and whatever the obligations of the future we can not then be false to othera." Nothing very partisan in that statement but just plain, common sense, American doctrine. He speaks at the Davis theatre on Monday, October 25. The meeting will commence at 1 o'clock. At the town hall arrangements have been made for a second meeting which will be addressed by longressman Richard P. Freeman and Cornellus J. Danaher. At the close of Sanator Borah's speech at the theater he will speak at the town hall.
